Cash flow projection:

 SAMEA is aiming to maintain a healthy financial balance after the 2015 Conference to sustain member services and operating costs. As part of refining SAMEA's 3 year strategic plan and funding framework, SAMEA continues to explore strategic relationships and sponsorships to diversify its funding sources beyond membership and conference revenue.

New policies

 The Board has developed an Expenditure Approval Framework as well as a Petty Cash policy to strengthen financial management and good governance such as Human Resources (like Performance Management).

Fundraising

- SAMEA has relooked at its funding and sponsorship model to focus on long term sponsorship as compared to once-off funding linked to SAMEA conferences and workshops.

Professionalisation Update

- SAMEA is collaborating with the Department of Monitoring and Evaluation in the Presidency to undertake what is called "A Feasibility Study on the Professionalisation of Evaluation" in South Africa. The project is being funded by the UK's Department for International Development and is being undertaken by a team led by Dr. Donna Podems of OtherWISE Research and Evaluation.
- The Terms of Reference for the Study states its purpose as being to "explore the most appropriate route for professionalising evaluation in South Africa and to develop a roadmap for implementation of professionalization.
- The project started in February this year and has led to the delivery of a number of outputs, including an Inception Report, a Literature Review, a Situational Analysis, a Benchmarking Report and a Road Map, which has yet to be formally approved by the Committee overseeing this work.
- The project is the subject of a whole stream at this Conference and the views and perspectives on the issue cannot be easily summarized
- What is clear from a SAMEA perspective is that the Association needs to step up and play a strong leadership role in the process, particularly by facilitating and hosting inclusive conversations so that a clear route emerges in the coming period.
